Devan is originally from Nebraska. She graduated from Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture in Curtis, Nebraska with an Associate's Degree in Veterinary Technology in 2003. She moved to Brookings area in 2004. Devan joined our team in November of 2015. Devan brings experience from her Clinical and Research background to our clinic. She is married and has three children. Devan lives on an acreage with three horses, barn cats, a rabbit, and four chocolate labs. She enjoys camping, fishing, running, and spending time with her family.

Joelle Edwards, RVT

Registered Veterinary Technician

Joelle is originally a central Minnesota native but now calls South Dakota home. She graduated from Ridgewater College in Willmar, Minnesota with an Associate's Degree in Veterinary Technology in 2018. She moved out here after college to join our team in August of 2018. Joelle loves dentistry, surgery, and emergency care here at the clinic. She grew up working at her parent's restaurant and raising a variety of animals on their hobby farm. She always loved being outside with her horses, cattle, hogs, chickens, cats, and dogs which led her to be a veterinary technician. Aside from anything animal related, she enjoys fishing, archery, movies, and working on cars with her brothers. Joelle has a Quarter Horse named Valued Persuasion (Maggie), and a genetic tested mutt named Cinder (seven breeds total).
